

FLORIDA AND STATE LINE NEWS.

JAMONIA, June 8.—Rev. H. J. Graves preached at Bethpage at 3 p. m. last Saturday, and at 11 a. m. yesterday, the first Sunday. A very large crowd was present to hear him on Sunday. The visitors present from Broward were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Blair and son-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Stridge of Thomasville.

Mrs. Mat McElvey, her granddaughter, Miss Hollis, and Miss Maggie Brown went on a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Woodberry, near Hinson, Gadsden County, Florida, today. Mrs. Woodberry is a daughter of Mr. Albert McElvey. They expect to visit other families and to be gone all day.

The district school at Strickland was suspended all of last week. The teacher, Mr. Hendry, having gone on a visit to his home in Taylor County, and also to stand an examination for teacher's license at Perry, in said county. He is back to Jamonia now and will finish his free term of school at Strickland on Thursday, and the school will be treated to a picnic at the Basin on Friday, after which Mr. Hendry will leave us and return to his home in Taylor County. We wish him success in life.

An automobile flew by here going from Thomasville to Tallahassee on yesterday, and also returning in the afternoon.

Wherever it had fair cultivation corn is looking splendid.

District conference (Methodist) will meet at Wigham, Ga., on tomorrow, and hold on till Friday. Our pastor, H. J. Graves, and several delegates will go from the Metcalf circuit.

Mr. Tommie Harvin of Meridian was sick about all of last week; also, G. T. Brown, Jr., lost the week out of his farm by sickness.

We hear that Mr. J. R. Doss (Dick), formerly of our neighborhood, but now of Hinson, has married again. He married a Miss Hinson. We wish him and bride a long and happy life.

We are told that Mr. Tom Brandon will erect a large steam gin in Miccosukie in time to get some of the 1908 cotton crop to gin. We hope he will make a fortune by his venture in that village.

The marriage of Mr. Paul Carswell and Miss Lelah Cates, both of Tallahassee, was quietly celebrated Tuesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Cates, on Clinton street. No guests were invited, the young couple preferring to have only the immediate members of the family as witnesses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. I. S. Patterson, pastor of the First Methodist church.

They Will Help Elect Gilchrist.

It looks as if the church, through its anti-saloon league, intends taking up the campaign of John Stockton against Gen. Gilchrist, because the former professes to be dry and the latter favors local option. After that expose in Jacksonville it is certainly a surprise for this movement to start in that city and spread out over the State. It begins to look as if the anti-saloon league is ready to take up any weapon so long as it will strike the saloons. It is the old, old story. When the church goes into politics it must sink to the level of the politician because it can never raise politics to the high plane of true religion.—Key West Citizen.

Every lie imaginable to the unprincipled ward-heeler is being circulated against Duncan U. Fletcher, and nothing will be left undone to defeat him. His friends should be on the alert and see that he is given a "square deal" on the 16th.—Gainesville Sun.

Mrs. William Levy Recovers Her Jewels.

Mrs. William Levy was the victim of a peculiar accident the early part of the week, which, however, ended quite fortunately. Mrs. Levy intends going away for the summer, and, wishing to carry her jewels with her, she went to the bank where they were placed for the safe keeping and got them out. The articles were placed in a chamolais bag, and this she placed in her shopping bag which was worn suspended from her belt. Crossing the street after leaving the bank, Mrs. Levy went into Randolph's grocery when she discovered her shopping bag hanging open, and her jewels gone. Immediate search bringing no result, a reward was offered, whereupon the jewels were brought back to their owner by a negro boy, who picked them up in the street.

Mrs. S. L. Bowen, of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. One dollar bottle and a part of a second cured me entirely." Foley's Kidney Remedy works wonders when others are a total failure. For sale by all druggists.

THE EAST COAST AND BROWARD.

The Evening News is enabled to print today the first bit of direct evidence supporting the widespread rumor that a deal has been effected between the East Coast Railway interests and Governor Broward, whereby the East Coast influence is being thrown for Broward in his race for the United States Senate.

This evidence is in the shape of a letter from Mr. D. H. McMillan, Manager of the Consolidated Naval Stores Company, to Mr. J. P. Musselwhite, of Orlando, Fla., and it is printed in full in today's News.

While this letter is the first bit of prima facie evidence yet produced touching this startling new political alignment, there have been previous significant developments—notably the sudden silence of the Jacksonville Times-Union in regard to the Broward-Fletcher race and the open advocacy of Broward by the Tampa Times.

The Times-Union is popularly supposed to represent the wishes of the East Coast Railway in politics. Prior to the first primary, the Times-Union was a bitter and uncompromising opponent of Broward. It has been his chief critic throughout his administration as Governor; and, when he announced his candidacy for the United States Senate, it began a running fire of attacks upon him, continuing this fire until the first primary had eliminated Lamar and left the race between Fletcher and Broward.

Then came the sudden change; and the Times-Union, which had characterized Broward as the acme of unfitness and unreliability, which had inveighed daily against his election to the Senate, became as silent as the tomb in regard to his candidacy.

There is "something in this more than natural, if philosophy could find it out," and the Evening News predicts that it will be found out in short order, for such coalitions cannot be kept secret.

The letter from Mr. McMillan directly quotes two pronounced East Coast "workers," and it is to be presumed that these men speak with the authority of the East Coast political managers.

If, after the career of duplicity and time-serving, of inconsistency and incompetency, which he has recorded as Governor, Broward has now capped the climax by becoming an East Coast favorite, the State must pause for words sufficiently expressive to describe him. And, furthermore, if, for the reasons implied, this deal has been made, all the more reason why Broward should be eliminated from politics in Florida and Fletcher sent to the United States Senate.—Tampa News.

BROWARD BOOMERANG.

Live Oak Democrat: Of all the despised things to Mr. Broward and his followers in the beginning of this campaign it was apparently the Florida Times-Union and the Flagler interest generally. In his speeches he led one to believe that their very support was sufficient to contaminate the candidate of their choice and made him unfit for the servant of the people.

Before the first campaign the Times-Union and those interests supported Mr. Lamar.

They attacked Broward very severely because they thought that it was between Broward and Lamar as to who would run in the second primary with Fletcher.

And they did not want Fletcher. Mr. Lamar was left out of the race and the fight on Broward was immediately dropped. There were substantial rumors of fast and furious trading. The well known "heelers" for the East Coast Railway announced on the streets of Jacksonville that they had instructions to take Broward.

The Times-Union is now favorable to Broward's campaign.

To show these statements are not merely hearsay, we reproduce below extracts from a letter from Mr. D. H. McMillan, one of the leading citizens of Jacksonville, which shows conclusively how the East Coast influence is being used for Broward.

We quote from the letter as follows: "The first primary is over and everything seems to be shaping up for the second, and to my utter surprise I find the same 'ward heelers' now working for Broward that supported Mr. Lamar. The following is an extract of a conversation I had with Mr. J. G. Spottswood, who is employed as Claim Agent by the East Coast Railway, and who is well known all over the State to be a political worker and 'heeler' for their interests.

"I met Mr. Spottswood on the streets on Thursday after the election, and he remarked, 'that it seemed that his man, (Lamar) didn't run worth a cuss.' I asked him who was his man now? He replied, 'Broward,' saying the East Coast would do anything on earth to save Taliaferro, and that Broward would move away from Jacksonville, leaving the field open for Taliaferro two years hence. I asked him if he supposed he could get Mr. Broward to move? He replied, 'Yes, he would move to h— to get to go to the United States Senate.'

"I also had a conversation with Dr. J. Cahn, who before the first primary made several trips through the State in the interest of Mr. W. B. Lamar, stating everywhere he went that he was employed by the East Coast to work for Mr. Lamar. He is also now working for Mr. Broward. He stated publicly on the streets of Jacksonville, since the first primary, that he was for Broward, as his instructions were: 'If we can't get Lamar, we'll take Broward; we don't want Fletcher,' and he pulled out of his pocket a huge roll of bills, exhibiting them to parties to whom he was talking. He further stated, 'that he expected to leave Jacksonville and make a trip through the State in the interest of Governor Broward for the Senate.'

NOTE—The Times-Union refused to print an article handed them by Mr. W. J. Sears, of Kissimmee, which article bore the signature of Mr. Sears and referred to Mr. Broward's drainage operations.

Also, The Times-Union refused to print an article handed them by Mr. Chas. Dougherty of Volusia county, which article bore the signature of Mr. Dougherty and referred to Mr. Broward along the same lines as did another article which the Times-Union published for Mr. Dougherty before the first primary.

Does anyone doubt where the Times-Union stands? Is any more conclusive proof necessary to show that there is a deal on between Broward and the corporate interests?

A Sample of Fine Peaches.

We had presented to us this week by Mr. W. C. Lewis, some delicious peaches picked from a volunteer tree growing in his garden. The fruit peels like a honey peach, is sweet, juicy, and flavored like a clearstone, but adheres to the seed like a slingstone. The peaches are large, symmetrical, and absolutely free from worms, and clearly demonstrate the perfection to which peach cultivation can be brought in Leon county.

Look Out! Here He Comes!

Paul West and Gus Edwards' song hit, "A Two-Horse Fellow in a One-Horse Town," will be given with the New York Sunday World next Sunday. Words and music complete. This song is from "The Merry-Go-Round," now playing at Gus Edwards' Music Hall (old Circle Theater), Broadway, New York. Gus Edwards is the author of "School Days" and other popular songs, and Paul West is widely known as a song writer. "A Two-Horse Fellow in a One-Horse Town" is in their most popular vein.
